

RAW:churchill

March 2017

Most people are familiar with the unique dining experience on the Red and Assiniboine Rivers in the winter with RAW:almond. Not many people are familiar with dining in a historic fort among the dancing lights of the sky.

At 58 North latitude, nestled inside Prince of Wales Fort near the town of Churchill Canada, your adventure awaits. Imagine being inside the walls of a 300 year old stone fort under the majestic northern lights and having a world class meal created by one of Canada's top chefs. This is RAW:churchill, a culinary and adventure travel experience like no other.

The Experience

Day 1

Arrive into Churchill. Upon arrival, you will enjoy an interpretive transfer into the town of Churchill. You will then learn and taste the foods of the northern fur traders at the Parks Canada Interpretive Centre. After lunch, grab your sense of adventure and participate in a dog sledding excursion.

Early evening, board a private Tundra Buggy and cross the frozen Churchill River to the historic Fort Prince of Wales to start your RAW:churchill experience. The RAW:churchill tent structure is inside the fort's stone walls where you will be seated at a large table for 20. Enjoy a world-class meal prepared by Chef Mandel Hitzer in the warm tent. The incandescent dining tent is inspired by Northern dogsleds and Komantiks. A portion of the tent's roof is transparent so you may be able to catch a glimpse of the Northern Lights, weather dependent of course.

After dinner, you will once again board the official Tundra Buggy and travel away from the fort and lights of the town for a Northern Lights viewing session (weather permitting). Head back into town and overnight in Churchill at the Tundra Inn.
