As the Night Falls, an Eerie Chill Sets In...

Haunted Bus Tours of Winnipeg

Join us on the City of Ghosts Bus Tour (if you dare) and learn some fascinating ghost stories that are associated with some of the city's most famous landmarks. Looking for more of a thrill? Join in an investigation yourself on a Talking to the Dead Bus Tour where you visit inside actual known haunted locations and try your hand at communicating. Use tools and techniques the experts use and see if you can make contact with a curious entity looking to communicate.

Read more about the two different Haunted Bus Tours below then follow the links to book your seats online. Group rates are also available for 10+ paying adults by calling Heartland Travel direct. We always suggest booking early as these tours are very popular and will most definitely sell out.

Talking to the Dead Bus Tour

Use basic tools and techniques with the anticipation of capturing evidence of spirit activity on this ghost bus tour. Spirit communication will be attempted to occur so don't be shy and give it a try! On the Talking to the Dead Bus Tour you will enter the Manitoba Legislative Building, St. Boniface Museum, and finish the tour from inside the Fort Garry Hotel. Spend some time outside at the Vaughan Street Jail too!

Important Note - Parents and guardians with minors attending or who are thinking about bringing your minor - We are not liable / responsible for any negative results your child may develop from taking this tour, whether that be bad dreams, anxiety, or the like, as a result of attending one of these tours. It is your understanding that you are aware you are taking them on a Haunted Investigation where there will be discussions of ghost stories and communication techniques used. If you purchase a ticket for a minor you are agreeing with this statement and will not pursue any action that will negatively affect SquarePeg Tours, Heartland International Travel and Tours, or any of the locations we visit. If this tour is too much for your minor to handle, try the City of Ghosts Bus Tour instead.

City of Ghosts Bus Tour

This tour explains what paranormal activity is, what spirits are trying to tell us & how do they present themselves to us. The City of Ghosts Bus Tour is a good fit for those who are curious to understand this mystifying topic but do NOT want to interact with spirit! There is a visual presentation on board the bus. Suitable for children 8 years of age and older. Step off the bus at two locations: Vaughan Street Jail (not entered) and the Fort Garry Hotel. This tour is an excellent combination of history and understanding what is paranormal activity.

Symbols Surround you in Plain Sight

Hermetic Code Tours

Wednesday nights running now until October 25

Do you ever wonder why the Manitoba Legislative Building has sphinxes on it? Have you wanted to learn about the symbols and hidden meanings behind the mystical architecture of the building? Join Dr. Frank Albo, researcher and academic inspiration behind the Hermetic Code for an evening of decoding the famous symbols and architecture that make the building truly unique. Meet inside the building and begin to unlock the mysteries of Canada's most unique architectural landmark. Dr. Albo will take you along step-by-step to reveal a trail of occult clues concealed in the building's architecture including: hidden hieroglyphic inscriptions, numerological codes, and Freemasonic symbols so intelligently masked they have escaped historians and visitors for nearly a hundred years!

Rock On!

Magical Musical History Tours

Roll up for the 6th annual Magical Musical History Tour. Join local music historian John Einarson as he guides you through the streets of Winnipeg on a very unique one-of-a-kind tour of the city's illustrious rock 'n' roll history. See the house where Neil Young lived and began his song writing career, where he made his first recordings and played his first live performances, see the house where Burton Cummings and Randy Bachman of the Guess Who wrote These Eyes, No Time, and others as well as where Burton Cummings composed Share the Land, Rain Dance, and more; see the school where Neil Young sat on the steps and "dreamed of being a star"; where Bachman Turner Overdrive (BTO) was first conceived; the house Terry 'Seasons in the Sun' Jacks grew up; the spot where Neil Young met Joni Mitchell; plus much more.

The tour also features video footage of vintage photos and music as well as John's colourful stories and points of interest. In the 1960's, Winnipeg was the rock 'n' roll capital of Canada. See and hear why on this exciting tour.

Christmas is Coming...

Christmas Lights Sightseeing Tours

December 13 and December 20

Join us as we tour throughout Winnipeg and see the many displays that keep us in the running for the Christmas capital of Canada! While listening to Christmas carols, you will see many colourful displays that include both residential and business. See the Christmas lights at the Manitoba Legislative Building and the camels that stand across from it. We will slowly drive down Candy Cane Lane, Polar Bear Alley, and make our way to Nutcracker Street to view some amusing and enjoyable light displays. Try your luck at Christmas light bingo and trivia to win some festive prizes! You also learn about the importance of using LED lights in your own displays and so much more! Oh yeah - we will also drive through the Winter Wonderland display at Assiniboia Downs too - on BOTH tour nights!

Details are still being finalized for this years tours - call 204-989-9630 or email us to be added to a contact list and we will notify you as soon as more information is ready.
